FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Montclair, NJ (July, 2018)–Please join us at Gallery L for an opening reception for Jennifer Levine. The opening reception will be on Saturday July 14th at 7pm. Jennifer lives and creates art in Montclair at her Church Street studio. She has a BA in Jewish studies from UMASS/Amherst and completed a two-year conservatory program at the San Francisco School of Circus Arts. She has worked as a classroom teacher in private schools for over twenty years. Currently she is the Director of Education at Temple Sholom, a reform synagogue in Scotch Plains NJ.

Levine will be doing live drawing during the event, creating life size soul portraits that will be for sale. Proceeds that exceed the first $1000 will be donated to SAFE, a non-profit that provides unique services for domestic violence victims.

Resident artist and owner, Luke Waldrum will also be featuring art during the exhibit.
